

Nutritional Health Solutions

Ingredient portfolio, North America

Premium ingredients to help visibly improve pets' health and wellness

Nutrios brings your brand real differentiation and elevated consumer appeal with our premium health ingredients. Choose from a full range of single-source animal protein hydrolysates that ease formulation of your clean-label products—and offer highly digestible, pet-pleasing foods with standardized amino-acid profiles and low-ash, high-protein content. We guarantee stability with no special handling required, and we proudly rely on local facilities to help provide the assurance of safety management and process consistency.

Your customers will appreciate the simple assurance of familiar premium protein sources.

Protein source:

Pepti'One Poultry Frozen Block

To learn more about the nutritional health products available in your region and others, get in touch with us today!