Ovalin™ 46 Cage-Free

Dried Whole Egg

Set the standard for quality and animal-welfare compliance.

For pet foods, egg is the quality standard by which all protein ingredients are measured. It's also the single most nutritionally complete whole food item, period. With Ovalin™ 46 Cage-Free Egg from Nuvin™, you can deliver that natural nutrition while assuring consumers that your products comply with current and developing animal-welfare standards.

Ovalin™ 46 delivers a balanced amino-acid profile, energy, vitamins, and minerals—ideal for use as a feature ingredient or for added nutritional assurance. Premium-quality egg can also enhance your marketing claims, especially as consumer preferences and regulatory realities demand cage-free production.

Benefits:

- Natural, label-friendly ingredient
- Compliance with enhanced animal-welfare standards
- Third-party-verified supply chain
- Industry-leading amino-acid profile
- High protein-to-ash ratio (10:1 or better)
- Shelf stable
- Nutritionally efficient compared to other protein sources
